CERTIFICATE OF DISCOVERY DISPUTE

AND NOW, comes the defendant, HEIM, L.P., through its counsel, MEYER, DARRAGH, BUCKLER, BEBENEK & ECK, P.L.L.C., and files this discovery dispute certificate pursuant to Local Rul 37.1, averring as follows:

1. Defendant has made a reasonable effort to reach agreement with plaintiff's counsel on matters set forth in defendant's motion for protective order.

2. Specifically, in response to plaintiff's first two notices of designated corporate official deposition, defendant produced a corporate designee, Mr. Anthony Mase, who was questioned at length by plaintiff.

3. In addition, following service of plaintiff's third notice, counsel for the parties had numerous discussions concerning its vagueness and inappropriateness, and plaintiff's counsel stated he would not proceed with the deposition if he was advised in writing that Heim did not have someone additional "that was going to surprise him by appearing at trial."

4. Nonetheless, plaintiff's third notice of designated corporate official deposition contains requests that are overly broad, vague, unduly burdensome, and harassing, and it seeks to obtain information that is completely irrelevant and not at all calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence.

WHEREFORE, defendant Heim, L.P. respectfully files its certificate of discovery dispute pursuant to Local Rule 37.1, and incorporates the relief requested in its motion for protective order.

Respectfully submitted,

MEYER, DARRAGH, BUCKLER,
BEBENEK & ECK, P.L.L.C.
